Round Towers Lusk GAA Club

DISCIPLINARY, COMPLAINTS AND APPEALS PROCEDURES

Brief

The Club should ensure that it has adequate disciplinary, complaints and appeals procedures in place. It is important to note that the investigation of suspected child abuse is the responsibility of the statutory authorities and will not be undertaken by the Child Protection Officer or other Club volunteers/officials. The standard reporting procedure outlined in the statutory authorities' guidelines should be followed by the Club and adhered to by its members.

In respect of underage members, the Club adopts the National GAA Code of Behaviour (Underage) which can be downloaded from the Policies section of the Club's website.

While complaints can be submitted formally to the Club, if an informal resolution through mediation can be used to deal with the situation accordingly, this may be the preferable option.

Complaints/Disciplinary Procedures Dealing with a Complaint

All complaints (other than those dealt with under the National GAA Code of Behaviour (Underage) referred to above) should be submitted in writing either to the Chairperson, Secretary or the Child Protection Officer (in the instance of a child protection issue).

If the complaint is submitted at Club level it is the responsibility of the Club to deal with the complaint. As per 6.22 of the Club Constitution and as noted in the Gaelic Athletic Association Official Guide Part 1 any member may submit a complaint. The Executive Committee can appoint a subcommittee comprising not more than four Club members which shall have the power to investigate any matter (that does not relate to child abuse), and to make a recommendation to the Executive Committee to expel, suspend, warn, fine or disqualify members from Club activities for breach of this Constitution and Rules or the Official Guide or for conduct considered to have discredited or harmed the Club or the GAA.

All written complaints must be acknowledged within 5 (five) days of receipt.

For complaints dealing with personal data. Any request for communication or data must be submitted in accordance with GDPR guidance and via Special Access Request where the Club has 1 (one) month to respond as per GAA guidance.

The sub-committee will report back to the Executive Committee of progress of the disciplinary procedures. Written records of all complaints are kept safely and confidentially and Club procedures are defined for the possession of such records in the event of the election of new officers. If the complaint is submitted at County Board level the County Board must take responsibility for dealing with the complaint.

If, in the opinion of the Chairperson/Child Protection Officer, there are grounds for concern, the statutory authorities should be contacted.
